

MEMBERSHIP

Becoming a member of IWCF gives you a voice within our industry. We want your voice to be heard so we can continue to implement change and raise the standard of well control training. Any company or individual within the oil and gas industry with an interest in the continuing development of well control knowledge and skills can apply for membership.

When you join as a member you will be assigned to one of our 12 Regional Branches based on your geographical location. You can then raise any ideas and concerns you have at branch meetings to help drive continuous improvement within our industry.

Receive information directly from us including information notices, monthly updates, live regional branch statistics and technical updates.

Attend your regional branch meetings to help drive continuous improvement in our industry.

Attend IWCF member events such as technical workshops and our Annual General Meeting. All members will receive free delegate passes for events.

Get your own profile on our website in our Member's Directory with links to your website and social media profiles.
